Vaibhav Asks: I am wearing three rings on my right hand. The index finger has a gold ring with a Pukhraj, the middle finger has a silver ring with a Gomed and the ring finger has a gold ring with Emerald and Diamond. I want to know the best combination of gemstone rings for me to wear as I am experiencing delays in getting marriage. My DOB: 13th June 1983, TOB: 06:45 AM and POB - Dibai, Uttar Pradesh, India. Please let me know which gemstones I should wear to get good and fast results.

Astrologer Ashutosh: Vaibhav! you were born under Mithun (Gemini) ascendant and Mithun (Gemini) moon sign. Jupiter governs your marriage but it is not placed well in your horoscope. Moreover, it is in conflict with your primary gemstone, the Emerald. So, wearing its gemstone, the Pukhraj (Yellow sapphire), is actually causing this delay in your marriage. You should remove this gemstone ring immediately.

Emerald is a beneficial gemstone for you but you are wearing it on the wrong finger. You should wear it on the little finger instead of wearing it on the ring finger. You have not mentioned how big is the diamond or are there small diamonds which are in that emerald ring. But, if you have worn that ring primarily for emerald then it should be worn only on the little finger in a gold ring.

The Gomedh is okay on the middle finger in the silver ring. You can keep wearing it. For the purpose of getting married, you should wear a gemstone for Venus (Shukra) too in a silver ring on the ring finger of the right hand. The best options are either a good quality White Sapphire or a Good quality Fire-Opal.

The White Sapphire should be around 0.9 carats per 10 Kilograms of your body weight. The Opal should be around 1.2 Carats per 10 Kilograms of your body weight. These gemstones for Venus are worn on Friday at sunrise. Just be careful to ensure that the gemstones are natural, untreated and of the right weight too.
