

Venus will enter Libra tomorrow at 10.12.38 Hrs IST ending the much harassing combination with Mercury-Mars and Sun in Virgo. Also, Mercury goes retrograde in Virgo tomorrow. Astrologer Ashutosh Says-

There will be visible and much felt relief for all in general from the past one month's stressed and depressive developments all around the world. Ways will be found out by the governments to tackle the economic difficulties which have aggravated in past few days.

But, when Mars enters Libra, Venus will come under direct influence of both the strong malefics, Saturn and Mars. Vehicular accidents, sex related crimes, large scale monetary scams and money guzzling news will feed the interested minds.

There will be short term greed laced newly floated plans by some fraud companies. Just keep your eyes open and do not take any decision in haste.

For India, war clouds will darken over the nation's borders. The extremists will find better and more sophisticated ways to make their terror schemes come true.

Business will look up and the political difficulties which are obstructing the launch of TATA's small car Nano will almost be solved with some great diplomatic efforts by the interested parties.
