

Rajat Ray asks: I recently changed my job after a lot of trying in April 2010. My new job involves a lot of speculation in the financial markets. Astrologer Ashutosh: Mr. Rajat! Your horoscopes shows that the work related to financial markets, stocks, loans and investments, etc suits you well.

Also, you will delve your hand in quite diverse kind of works besides your main profession and you will earn good money from all your enterprises.

Present change in job is long lasting. In August 2010, there will develop some situations in your office which can force you to change the present job for another one. But, the new job will be much better and more comfortable than the present one. The change in job will be associated with a change in your location too.

Things will move quite unexpectedly and you will be required to take quick decisions and to move at a very short notice. But, at the same time, you will have to be very careful about your health.

In 2012, you will get good opportunity to start your own enterprise in partnership. Be prepared for it and keep an aim to ultimately have your own flourishing business instead of a job. You will do very well in your own business.
